++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely dry with breezy winds easing into the evening.

Today:
Isolated showers fading through the morning to leave a dry afternoon for most with sunny spells. Breezy for much of the day, with strong gusts along coasts in the morning, and generally feeling fresher than Saturday. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Winds easing through the evening. Thereafter, a fine and dry night with prolonged clear intervals. Temperatures dropping off, allowing for a rural grass frost and localised air frost. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Monday:
A cold start on Monday under clear intervals but becoming increasingly cloudy through the day. Patchy rain spreading across the region later in the afternoon as a breeze picks up. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Turning milder into Tuesday with outbreaks of rain through the day before clearing on Wednesday and brightening up. Further cloud and patchy rain potentially spreading across the region on Thursday.
